Problem – Solution Fit Template:

The Problem-Solution Fit simply means that you have found a problem with your customer and that the solution you have realized for it actually solves the customer's problem. It helps entrepreneurs, marketers and corporate innovators identify behavioral patterns and recognize what would work and why

Purpose:

- Understand users' nutrition-related problems and needs.
- Identify effective solutions through brainstorming and analysis.
- Design a personalized nutrition planning application.
- Improve users' health with customized meal recommendations.

Template:

1. CUSTOMER SEGMENTS - Health-conscious individuals seeking personalized nutrition. - Fitness enthusiasts, students, and working professionals.	6. CUSTOMER LIMITATIONS - Limited nutrition knowledge. - Lack of time for meal planning.	5. AVAILABLE SOLUTIONS - Generic diet charts and fitness apps. - Online nutrition websites and calorie calculators.
2. PROBLEMS/PAINS (+ frequency) - Difficulty planning balanced meals every day. - Manual calorie and nutrition calculation is confusing.	9. CAUSE OF PROBLEM - No personalized nutrition guidance. - Lack of awareness about calorie and macronutrient needs.	7. BEHAVIOR (+ its intensity) - Frequently searches for healthy diet plans. - Occasionally follows nutrition advice consistently.
3. TRIGGERS TO ACT - Desire to improve health and fitness. - Need for an easy and personalized diet plan.	10. YOUR SOLUTIONS - Personalized nutrition plan generation - Automatic calorie calculation - Macronutrient (Protein, Carbs & Fats) analysis - Meal recommendations based on user goals - Secure user profile and nutrition history storage	8. CHANNELS OF BEHAVIOR (online + offline) Online - Fitness & Nutrition Apps - YouTube Health Channels - Google Search Offline - Dieticians / Nutritionists - Gym Trainers - Friends & Family
4. EMOTIONS (before & after) Before: - Confused about nutrition choices. After: - Confident with a personalized meal plan.
